Philip Bell is CEO of CMI-UK/Europe and has worked as a creation apologist for many years, speaking throughout the UK and many other countries. His background includes zoology, geology, cancer research (nine years) and school science teaching. He is the author of Evolution and the Christian Faith: theistic evolution in the light of Scripture.

Prof. Hans Degens has an M.Sc. in biology and a Ph.D. in exercise physiology and has published very extensively in the academic literature. He lectures at the Manchester Metropolitan University (UK), is visiting professor at universities in Lithuania and Romania, and does some Bible teaching and preaching in his local church.

Brian Edwards is a Christian lecturer and preacher and who lives in London with his wife Rosie. He has degrees in theology (University of London), was pastor of an evangelical church for 30 years, then President of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches. His many books include historical biography, theology, and apologetics.

Tony Brown is an itinerant evangelist and author with a passion to share the gospel with people trapped in the falsehoods of New Religious Movements and cults. He is a speaker with Reachout Trust and his books include Sharing the Gospel With a Jehovah's Witness and Sharing the Gospel With a Mormon. He and his wife Cath live in Bradford.

Prof. Stuart Burgess has held academic posts at Bristol and Cambridge Universities, & Liberty University (USA), has won many prestigious awards in bioengineering, and has published some 190 academic papers. Stuart has spoken in many countries globally, both professionally and as a creationist apologist, and is the author of many books.

Phil Robinson is an associate speaker and writer for CMI based in Northern Ireland. With degrees in Physical Education (B.Ed.) and Theology (M.Div.), he is passionate to communicate creation/Gospel truths. He has written numerous articles for Creation magazine, creation.com, and CMI newsletters.

Lucien Tuinstra has a B.Sc. in applied physics and a masters in biblical education and apologetics. After university, he lived and worked in Spain before settling in the UK. In October 2018, he joined CMI full-time as a speaker and writer and is passionate about combating secular thinking while proclaiming biblical Creation and Gospel truth.

Thomas Fretwell has a B.Th. and M.A. in Theology and is working on his Ph.D. He is a theology tutor for Kings Evangelical Divinity School, an assistant pastor in his church, and an associate speaker with CMI. He is author of Who Am I? Human Identity and the Gospel in a Confusing World and What does the Bible really say about Adam and Eve?

Andrew Sibley holds a B.Sc. in natural sciences, an M.Sc. in Environmental Decision Making (Open University), and an M.Phil. in theology (Exeter University). He took early retirement after 38 years as a meteorologist for the Met Office (UK), joining CMI in 2021. A prolific writer for CMI's publications, his books include Restoring the Ethics of Creation.

Mr Nigel Jones is a retired general surgeon (M.S. in surgery, London University) living in northern England with his wife Liz. After clinical practice, he lectured in medical ethics for ten years at Newcastle University. His life experiences and critiques of evolution are described in his book The Something Delusion: A Surgeon's Journey (2023).
